Day 1 10th May

Arrive at Santiago de Compostela airport and transfer to Sarria.

Flight Times TBC

Sarria has a nice atmosphere where you can relax while enjoying a drink or bite in one of the nice cafes. Visit the Igrexa de Santa Mariña with its evocative pilgrim museum, the castle fortress and the Magdalena Monastery.

Day 2 11th May

Sarria to Portomarin 22km

After your night in Sarria, expect a calm walk through pretty villages and peaceful hamlets under the shade of oak trees and along quiet country roads. Along the way, you will spot many Galician traditional 'hórreos' (granaries). Visit the beautiful Romanesque church in the village of Barbadele. Your destination for the night is the town of Portomarin.

Day 3 12th May

Portomarin to Palas de Rei 22km

After your night in Portomarin, your Camino will cross the river Miño (Galicia's longest river) and rise uphill steadily towards the Serra de Ligonde. You will pass nice hamlets such as Gonzar and Ventas de Narón. Stop to visit the Romanesque Church of Santa María in Castromaior and the Romanesque church in Eirexe, with its portal featuring a sculpture of Daniel with animals, as well as Pilgrim Santiago.

Day 4 13th May

Palas de Rei to Arzua 28km

After your night in Palas de Rei, the Camino trail continues downhill, passing the village of Casanova and the delightful village of Leboeiro. You should take a break in the lively market town of Melide, where you should try octopus, Galicia's most classic dish, in one of the many 'pulperías'. The Camino crosses several streams and follows a forest track bringing you to the village of Boente and the church of Santiago. Next is the pretty medieval hamlet of Ribadiso and finally the town of Arzúa, famous for its local cheese. In Arzúa, you should visit the churches of Santa María and A Magdalena.

Day 5 14th May

Arzua to Amenal 23km

After your night in Arzúa, your Camino will take you through pretty woods, sleepy villages and across streams for most of the day. The chapel of Santa Irene, with its unique statue of Santiago, is worth a visit. The rest of the route to Amenal is along a mix of good and calm country roads and forest tracks.

Day 6 15th May

Amenal to Santiago de Compostela 16km

After your night in Amenal, your next point of interest is Lavacolla in the outskirts of Santiago, where pilgrims used to wash themselves in the river in preparation for their arrival. Rows of tall eucalyptus trees line your journey to Monte do Gozo ('Mount of Joy' 368m) and it is from here that will catch your first glimpse of the spires of the cathedral in Santiago. When you arrive in the city explore this UNESCO World Heritage Site's architecture and delight in the wonderful atmosphere of this spiritual and cultural city.
